

Born American Pride®

Recording Artist Andrew Wellborn's newly re-released country song, music video and corresponding brand Born American Pride is a reminder of our nation's resilience and sacrifice that has advanced, preserved and protected individual freedom. During times of trouble and uncertainty, America has always proven itself to be the Greatest Country on God's Earth. Our Proud to be an American spirit has experienced unthinkable conflicts throughout our history that have tested our humanity, hearts and souls. From all-consuming wars to corporate scandals and political corruption, the American people have always pulled through to evolve stronger than ever! Born American Pride® pays tribute to all Americans who have fought through the toughest adversities and calls upon all of us to honor one another; to never forget those who have fallen to keep this country great!
